

40610 Kalifornsky Beach Road
Kenai, Alaska 99611

Phone: 907-283-5761
Fax: 907-283-9433
info@ciaanet.org
www.ciaanet.org

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Fisheries Technician, Tutka Bay Lagoon Hatchery

Closing Date: May 18, 2019

Cook Inlet Aquaculture Association (CIAA) has several openings for Fisheries Technicians at Tutka Bay Lagoon Hatchery. This is a remote site located in Tutka Bay Lagoon, across Kachemak Bay from Homer, Alaska. Tutka Bay Lagoon Hatchery produces ~100 million pink salmon fry annually. For more information, please see our website: <https://www.ciaanet.org/hatcheries/tutka-bay-lagoon-hatchery.html>.

Job description:

Positions are full-time, seasonal positions. Under the direction of hatchery staff, fisheries technicians will work on a variety of projects that may include rearing, outmigration, pink salmon broodstock collection, eggtake, and incubation as well as hatchery and equipment maintenance. Technicians may also be asked to operate small boats, water pumps, and hand and power tools. Work is often outside in any weather condition or inside around cold running water. Sound physical fitness is necessary due to the physical nature of the work. Employees live in communal dorm-style housing with shared kitchen and bathroom areas and must demonstrate the ability to live and work cooperatively and maintain cleanliness. Preferred candidates will have a strong scientific background.

Length of employment is approx. June 1 until September 30. There are several positions from August 1 until October 30 as well. Qualified employees may be asked to stay longer.

Qualifications:

Candidates must have basic carpentry skills, sound physical fitness, ability to live respectfully with coworkers, ability to follow instructions, and a good attitude despite the weather or difficulty of the task. The use of hand tools, outboard motor and small skiff operation, and outdoor skills will be required. Familiarity with sampling and data recording techniques is desirable. The job requires the ability to lift and carry up to 50lbs as well as current CPR and First Aid certifications.

If you believe you meet the qualifications and you are looking for a fun, challenging, and rewarding job in a stunning location in Alaska, then CIAA encourages you to apply. CIAA is an equal opportunity employer.

Compensation:

$13.00/hour, overtime eligible. Returning employees may be eligible for a pay increase. There are no holiday, vacation, or medical leave benefits associated with this position. CIAA will provide travel from Homer to Tutka Bay Lagoon, as well as accommodations and food for the length of employment.

Contact:

Please submit cover letter, resume, and three references to: Jess Eller, Tutka Bay Hatchery Manager, jeller@ciaanet.org

Salmon enhancement today means better salmon fishing tomorrow.